

The University of Arkansas Eleanor Mann School of Nursing

Nursing Science Day

The State of the Science for Animal-Assisted Therapy: Implications for Research, Education, and Practice Across the Health Care Continuum

Presenter Topics

-  Ethical Use of Canines in Healthcare and Academics Settings
-  Use of Canines in Academic Settings to Promote Mental Health
-  Assistance Dog Training Minor Degree & Certification for University Students
-  Use of Canines in Autism Therapy

Fayetteville Town Center

March 7, 2024

12:30 pm - 7:00 pm

Presented with

Keynote Speaker

Symposium Speakers

Temple Grandin, PhD

Distinguished Professor
Colorado State University

Allison Scott

DNP, CPNP-PC, IBCLC
Associate Professor
University of Arkansas

Morgan Yordy

DNP, ACNS-BC, RN, FCNS
Associate Professor
Auburn University

Michele Kilmer

DNP, CPNP-PC
Assistant Professor
University of Arkansas

Kyria Henry

Executive Director of paws4people.org

Call for Abstracts: Visit

https://uark.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_eA3Y4PE5HyKsiF0 or scan QR code for more information about abstract submissions.

All research topics are welcomed.

Submission date: January 31, 2024

Notification of Acceptance of Abstracts: February 9, 2024

Submit questions to: nursing@uark.edu

